

BA (HONS) (CRIMINOLOGY) - CK113

Overview

NFQ Level 8, Major Award

The BA (Hons) Criminology is a three-year, full-time, interdisciplinary degree in Criminology.

To be eligible for the award of the BA (Hons) degree a student will be required to have achieved 180 credits by obtaining 60 credits in each of First, Second, and Third Arts (Criminology). A student may not register for more than 60 credits in one academic year.

BA (Hons) (Criminology) (International) Pathway

The BA (Hons) (Criminology) (International) Pathway (<https://ucc-ie-public.courseleaf.com/programmes/bacrmii/>) is a four-year programme which enables students to study abroad for a year in an approved University outside Ireland.

First Year - Arts (Criminology)

In First Arts (Criminology) students study prescribed modules to the value of 60 credits in the designated subjects:

Points to Note:

- German: Students wishing to select German (Non Beginners) should have a minimum grade H4 in German in the Leaving Certificate (or equivalent).
- French: A student will not normally be allowed to select French unless he/she has attained a pass standard in French in the Leaving Certificate Examination or equivalent.
- Italian: Students wishing to take Non-Beginners' Italian are recommended to have a minimum of Grade H4 in Italian in the Leaving Certificate Examination (or equivalent). Students who have studied Italian at second level and obtained a grade below H4 can join the Beginners' Italian course.
- Spanish: Students wishing to take Beginners' Spanish must have obtained a Grade H4 in the Leaving Certificate (or equivalent) in another modern continental language or Irish, Latin, or Greek. Students wishing to take Non-Beginners' Spanish must have obtained a minimum Grade H4 in Spanish in the Leaving Certificate Examination (or equivalent). Students will be accepted to the Beginners group only if they have no prior German, or if they have reached a level no higher than Junior Certificate German.

Second Year - Arts (Criminology)

No student may register for Second Arts (Criminology) until he/she has passed the First University Examination in Arts (Criminology). The selection of any module is conditional on the Professor or Lecturer concerned and the College being satisfied that a student is capable of profiting by attendance thereat. Students may not select modules which involve a timetable clash.

Student who wish to take the four-year option with a year abroad must register for the BA (Criminology) (International) Pathway (<https://ucc-ie-public.courseleaf.com/programmes/bacrmii/>) at the beginning of Second Year.

In Second Arts (Criminology) students take core modules in Criminology to the value of 25 credits plus 35 credits of elective modules.

Note: Students cannot take the same module in Year 2 and again in Year 3.

Third Year - Arts (Criminology)

No student may register for Third Arts (Criminology) until he/she has passed the Second University Examination in Arts (Criminology). The selection of any module is conditional on the Professor or Lecturer concerned and the College being satisfied that a student is capable of profiting by attendance thereat. Students may not select modules which involve a timetable clash.

In Third Arts (Criminology) students take core modules to the value of 15 credits in Criminology plus 45 credits of elective modules.

Note: Students cannot take the same module in Year 2 and again in Year 3.

Programme Learning Outcomes

Programme Learning Outcomes for BA (Hons) (Criminology) (NFQ Level 8, Major Award)

On successful completion of this programme, students should be able to:

- Have a critical analysis of the varying causes and functions of crime in society;
- Know the history of criminology and its wide range of theories;
- Be aware of the influence of class, gender, race, religion, politics, region and age in the causation and definition of crime and social deviance;
- Have learned key empirical research findings about crime and understood the main research methodologies used to construct criminological knowledge;
- Create research designs into a wide range of criminological issues;
- Read and decode the philosophy, theory and research implicit in different criminal justice politics and policies;
- Conduct a critical assessment of popular opinion, media images of crime and deviance, and the official criminal statistics;
- Have gained an insight into the forms and processes of criminalization, and an awareness of alternatives to imprisonment;
- Have become aware of cultural variations in the handling of moral and political conflicts globally; and of the relationship between the international economic order and crime and justice in developing countries.
