<sup>2</sup> Students who have not taken Korean in Year 1 may take it as a new subject in Year 2, subject to timetable constraints.

<sup>3</sup> In addition to the general regulations for passing the year, students must pass AS1602.

<sup>4</sup> Subject to having completed a total of 25 credits of Korean in Years 1 and 2, students may spend either two semesters studying at a partner institution in South Korea, or one semester in South Korea (study at partner institution) and one semester in a country of a second language studied in Years 1 and 2 (study at partner institution or work placement). All courses taken during Year 3 will be assessed by the approved Host University. Please note that a work placement in Korea will not initially be available.

<sup>6</sup> Students who have taken Korean as a 15-credit subject (AS1600 and AS1601) in Year 2 may take Korean as a 10-credit subject in Year 4, subject to timetable constraints.

<sup>7</sup> In addition to the general regulations for passing the year, students must pass AS1602 or AS1603.

<sup>8</sup> Students may take Korean as a 20-credit Subject in Year 4 on condition that they have the pre-requisite for AS3006, namely 'a significant standard of Korean Language (assessed before entry)', and would normally be expected to have made good progress having spent Year 3 studying at a Korean university.

<sup>9</sup> In addition to the general regulations for passing the year, students must pass AS1603 or AS1604.

<sup>10</sup> Students who have taken Korean as a 15-credit subject (AS1600 and AS1601) in Year 2 may take Korean as a 10-credit subject in Year 4, subject to timetable constraints.

Examinations

Full details and regulations governing Examinations for each programme will be contained in the Marks and Standards Book and for each module in the Book of Modules.

Programme Learning Outcomes

Programme Learning Outcomes for BA (Hons) (World Languages) NQF Level 8, Major Award

On successful completion of this programme, students should be able to:

- demonstrate a high level of linguistic competence in each of the languages studied, and at a level commensurate with the number of credits taken;
- read texts at an appropriate level in each of the languages studied and perform tasks based on their comprehension;
- communicate in writing at an appropriate level and in a range of registers in each of the languages studied;

- perform tasks based on aural comprehension and communicate orally at an appropriate level and in a range of registers in each of the languages studied;
- demonstrate awareness of aspects of non-linguistic communication relevant to each of the languages studied;
- engage in meta-linguistic discourse: i.e. discuss, describe and analyse language as a system;
- read and analyse a range of texts (including film and audio-visual texts) pertaining to the culture(s) of one or more of the languages studied;
- convey their knowledge in critical essays and oral presentations, using the critical vocabulary and methodologies of the relevant disciplines.
