

LLM (TAUGHT)

Overview

NFQ Level 9, Major Award

The degree of LLM (Taught) is examined by a dissertation and prescribed assessments and examinations.

The LLM (Taught) is a full-time programme running for 12 months or a part-time programme running for 24 months from the date of first registration for the programme. A full-time candidate may not, during the currency of the LLM, simultaneously pursue any other form of education, training or employment, without the advance permission of the School of Law.

Presentation of Dissertation/Submission Dates

The dissertation must be submitted for examination at the Winter Board, on a date in September to be specified by the School of Law at the commencement of the programme.

Exit Award

Postgraduate Diploma in Law

Upon successful completion of modules to the value of 60 credits, registered LLM students may opt not to proceed with the programme and exit with a Postgraduate Diploma in Law (<https://ucc-ie-public.courseleaf.com/programmes/pdlaw/>) (NFQ Level 9, Major Award).

<sup>1</sup> It may be that not all modules listed above will be offered each year and/or other options may become available.

<sup>2</sup> In order to ensure a reasonable distribution of workload, when choosing modules for all programmes, students should take a balance of credits between Semester 1 and Semester 2. Students who wish to deviate from this rule must seek permission from their Programme Director.

<sup>3</sup> Undergraduate Modules: In certain cases, with the permission of the Programme Director, students may elect to take 10 credits from the list of undergraduate modules available for the LLB (<https://ucc-ie-public.courseleaf.com/programmes/lb/>) degree.

<sup>4</sup> There is a quota of 20 students for LW6563. Preference will be given to students from the LLM (Children's Rights and Family Law) (<https://ucc-ie-public.courseleaf.com/programmes/lmcrf/>) and any remaining places will be allocated on a first come first served basis.

Examinations

Full details and regulations governing Examinations for each programme will be contained in the Marks and Standards Book and for each module in the Book of Modules.
