

LLM (BUSINESS LAW)

Programme Learning Outcomes

Programme Learning Outcomes for LLM (Business Law) (NFQ Level 9, Major Award)

On successful completion of the programme, students should be able to:

- Critically evaluate primary and secondary legal materials of relevance to international business law including Irish and European legislation, case-law and academic commentary;
- Identify and explore interconnections between legal topics in the area of business law;
- Demonstrate self-direction and originality in tackling and solving legal problems in respect of international business law;
- Demonstrate original, independent and critical thinking in relation to the relevant legal issues;
- Place legal developments in respect of international business law in broader economic and social contexts;
- Formulate research questions and develop appropriate research methodologies;
- Undertake scholarly research exploring legal themes of relevance to international business law;
- Conduct research on a legal topic in the area of business law and write a masters-level dissertation on that topic;
- Use Information Technology appropriately for high-level legal research and writing;
- Prepare and deliver presentations on legal topics;
- Express complex legal and/or policy analysis in an appropriate legal style, in accordance with legal writing standards.