art. The emphasis is on learning through a combination of professional practice in collaboration with the Cork Opera House as well as more traditional learning in a class room setting. Students take core modules on arts management and creative producing together with an end of year arts placement. As a final project, and with mentorship/guidance from the teaching team, students will programme their own professional programme of work in live presentation in collaboration with Cork Opera House.

Part-time Option

The part-time programme is taken over two years. Part-time students must take a minimum of 20 credits of taught modules in their first year. In Year Two part-time students take a minimum of 65 credits. The Arts Placement module (5 credits) can be taken in the first or second year for part-time student. For part-time students, the Final Project (dissertation) module is only available in the second year.

Alternative Pathway:

Postgraduate Diploma in Arts Management and Creative Producing

Students who pass modules in Part 1 to the value of 45 credits and achieve an aggregate pass mark of 40% overall may choose to register for the alternative Postgraduate Diploma pathway. Postgraduate Diploma students will be required to complete DR6059 Creative Producing Research Project (15 credits) and DR6047 Arts Placement in Part 2 to be awarded the 65 credits Postgraduate Diploma in Arts Management and Creative Producing (<https://ucc-ie-public.courseleaf.com/programmes/pdamcp/>).
