The MA (Global Gallery Studies) at University College Cork is a one-year full-time or two-year part-time taught masters (NFQ, Level 9) which aims to prepare postgraduates for various careers in the gallery sector and other fine art institutions in Ireland and internationally.

Directed by History of Art in association with The Glucksman (UCC's award winning on campus gallery) and Digital Arts and Humanities, UCC, the programme will offer an innovative blend of theory and real-world practice comprised of the history, theories and contemporary practices of the gallery in a global context.

Postgraduate Diploma in Global Gallery Studies

Candidates who pass Part I (60 credits) and who choose not to progress to the dissertation or who fail, or fail to submit, the dissertation, may be awarded a Postgraduate Diploma in Global Gallery Studies (<https://ucc-ie-public.courseleaf.com/programmes/pdggs/>).
