

MSC (ADVANCED PRACTICE) (NURSING/MIDWIFERY)

Programme Learning Outcomes

Programme Learning Outcomes for MSc in Advanced Practice (Nursing/Midwifery) (NFQ Level 9, Major Award)

On successful completion of this programme, students should be able to:

- Demonstrate the application of ethically sound solutions to complex issues related to individuals and populations.
- Utilise advanced knowledge, skills, and abilities in clinical decision-making.
- Demonstrate the ability to contribute to the professional body of knowledge related to his/her area of advanced practice.
- Negotiate and advocate with other healthcare professionals to ensure that the rights and wishes of the person are respected.
- Manage and assess risk and promote a safe environment and quality patient/client care.
- Lead in multidisciplinary team planning for transitions across the continuum of care.
- Practice as a learned member of the multidisciplinary team in the delivery of quality healthcare for individuals and families across a variety of contexts and practice.
- Demonstrate creative and critical thinking abilities and reasoning skills in using theoretical, empirical, and scientific knowledge in nursing assessment, diagnosis, and practice.
- Demonstrate a systematic understanding of the theory and regulatory framework for the prescription of medicinal products.